

Speaker's Bureau

The Charis Prison Ministry has been walking alongside prisoners for over 30 years. We've witnessed firsthand the saving grace of our living God. We've got a great story to tell—one of redemption and transformation—and we'd like to share this story with you.

Presenters are now available to speak to churches, community organizations, or any other interested groups about the Charis Prison Ministry. This is an opportunity to learn about the prisons where Charis is currently serving, elements of the Charis weekend, the follow-up program for those who attended a Charis weekend, how to encourage continued growth after release and how to get involved.

If you are interested in having someone speak to your group, please contact Dee Moore at 952-913-7332 or send an email to Charisprisonministry@gmail.com. Information about Charis can be found at www.charismn.com.

Our story is not complete without you, the Christian community.

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me. The King will reply, I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me."
Matthew 25:35, 36, 40
